DELETED SCENES / 360 Video

Remember when I said that some of the stuff they dumped on the cutting room floor should be used for a second part special video? Damn it feels good to be right! This one's for all you freaks who didn't get enough of the last uncut video. Aside from race/show coverage and 360 trailers you'll get more booty-shaking, milk t-shirt contests, bloopers, plus a special "Deep Inside Cherrie Roberts and Linda Lee" interview. Down boy, now check out 360vm.com for clips.

GAME INVASION / Various Artists

Who says Asian's and Pacific Islanders can't rock tracks? All the artists on this compilation are of asian decent, however, this is not a "first of it's kind" CD. The good thing is that it's out but why is it that Cali's Bay Area is the only place that gets propers on the numerous attempts with these underground heaters? You other areas should be ashamed! Check out the new stuff from artists like Wisemen, Paw Ray, KNT, and Chops of Philly's Mountain Brothers. NewBornEntertainment.com

DEEP WATER SLANG 2.0 / Zion I

We've been off in the cut preparing this next joint! It's basically a soundtrack for this change over period that we're all experiencing. DWS 2.0 is an emotionally charged revival that shocases an edgier, more street influenced steez for the Zion I Crew. Get ready ta hold your breath. We goin' for a swim.
